

WOMEN'S STUDIES

WOMEN'S STUDIES

Dr. Vanaja Dhruvarajan

Conceptualizing and doing research on Hindu women in changing academic and social contexts: Personal Reflections

Dr. Vanaja Dhruvarajan, Professor of Sociology, is the Ruth Wynn Woodward Chair in Women's Studies at SFU for the year 1994-95. She has extensive teaching experience in family and socialization and dynamics of sex and gender. Her research interests concentrate on women of color, particularly women of Indo-Canadian origin.

October 12, 1994

Wednesday evening at 7:30 pm

HSD Building A240

University of Victoria

Free and open to the public

*Vanaja will meet with Women's Studies
students for informal seminar / talk -
Brown Bag lunch - Thursday,
Oct. 13 -
out Reading Room 1115*