

WOMEN'S STUDIES SPEAKERS SERIES

OKANAGAN
COLLEGE

BRING YOUR LUNCH AND JOIN US
ELM BLDG. RM. Z-71 11:30 AM. - 1:00 PM.

October 17 Health, Sexuality and Women in the 90's

Kathy Turner-Corbett, BSc Nursing, is also known in Kelowna as Kathy the Street Nurse. She has a great deal of experience in such areas as Public Health and Home Care and spent two years with the Toronto City AIDS Prevention Programme. Kathy will discuss the issues of STDS, AIDS, successful negotiation of safer sex and making healthy choices about sexuality.

November 21 From Jane Eyre to Villette A Case History in Feminist Literary Criticism

Andrea Lebowitz, Senior Lecturer, Department of English, SFU and winner of the 3M Teaching Award in 1990, is a highly acclaimed instructor of feminist literary criticism and 19th and 20th century American and British Literature. The women authors whose work she teaches include George Eliot, Emily Bronte, Charlotte Bronte and Jane Austen. She is the founder of Women's Studies at SFU.

Sponsored by the Committee for Women's Studies at Okanagan College and the Kelowna Women's Resource Centre with the support of the Department of Women's Studies at Simon Fraser University and the Faculty of Arts, University of British Columbia.