

November Public Lectures at Yukon College

Featuring:

Dr. Brian Burtch, Criminologist, Simon Fraser University

Professor Burtch teaches Criminology and gender studies at Simon Fraser University. He has completed degrees at Queen's University, the University of Toronto and the University of British Columbia. His key interests are critical criminology, gender and law, midwifery and the state, and the sociology of law.

Racial Discrimination, Multiculturalism and the Law
Codes and practices affecting First Nations and racial groups in Canada

Lecture Hall
November 18, 2003
7:30 - 10:00 pm

Masculinities Theory: Men and Gender Issues
*What does it mean to be a man?
New ideas of what manhood entails*

Lecture Hall
November 19, 2003
Noon - 1:00 pm

Sanctioning Midwifery: A Penalty or Reward for Canadian Midwives?
Examining the issues around midwifery and legal regulations

Room T1023
November 19, 2003
7:30 - 10:00 pm

Co-sponsored by:

~ Simon Fraser Women's Studies ~ Yukon College Women's Studies
~ Northern Justice and Criminology Program ~ Yukon Women's Directorate

