

In celebration of WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

---

Historical Reflections on the Figure of the Difficult Woman:
Mary Dixon Jones on Trial

a lecture by

Dr. Regina Morantz-Sanchez

Professor of History, University of Michigan

Dr. Morantz-Sanchez specializes in the women's history, the history of medicine, history of sexuality, and the family. Her published books are In Her Own Words: Oral Histories of Women Physicians (Oxford 1982), Sympathy and Science: Women Physicians in American Medicine (Oxford, 1985), and Conduct Unbecoming a Woman: Medicine on Trial in Turn of the Century Brooklyn (June 1999). This lecture is drawn from Dr. Morantz-Sanchez latest book.

---

Wednesday, October 13, 1999, 1:30 Halpern Centre

---

Co-sponsored by Women's Studies and History