Benefits for students

- Participate in a “deep dive” into scholarly publishing.
- Build relationships and tell community stories.
- Gain hands-on experience with copyright, author rights, creative commons licensing, peer review, and open access.
- Develop critical thinking skills through participation in public scholarship.
- Familiarity with journal publishing software.
Challenges

● Time commitment from instructors & sustainability of journals
● Capacity for library support
● Collaborating with community members
Thank You!
