

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1995

► Free Trade Zones and Women

9:30 a.m. - 10:45 a.m. - International Centre Lounge BIO 588

Workshop with Sylvia Waller, Oxfam Canada and Lorie Hanson, graduate student, Health Promotion. Using a short video presentation and looking at a broad definition of "Women's Health", this workshop will examine the effect of NAFTA on women in Mexico, putting into perspective some of the hazards of the worldwide rush to liberalize trading patterns.

► Internationalization and The U of C

10:45 a.m. - MSC North Courtyard

How is The University of Calgary campus being internationalized? What initiatives and forces are operating here on campus? How do these forces affect students? Panel session with Glynn Hunter (Coordinator, International Student Centre), Dr. Peter Krueger (Academic-in-Residence, International Centre), Dr. Brenda Kennedy (Director, Division of International Relations, International Centre).

► International Fashion Show

11:30 a.m. - MSC North Courtyard

► Making Links:

The Universal Struggle for Gender Equity

1:30 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard

Panel session with Bev Suderman (Past President, Canadian Congress for Learning Opportunities for Women), Dr. Maureen Wilson (Associate Professor, Faculty of Social Work) and Sunera Thobani (President, National Action Committee on the Status of Women). Moderator - Dr. Caryl Abrahams, Director, Division of International Development, International Centre. The speakers will address the impact of global economic restructuring and of our 'paradigm of modernization' on women around the globe.

► Through Indian Eyes

12:30 p.m. - International Centre Lounge BIO 588

A talk and slide show by Ven Begamudré, Writer-in-Residence, Markin-Flanagan Distinguished Writers Program, U of C. The presentation explores North-South attitudes through an examination of photography in India pre-and post-Colonialism.

► Tales of the Sari-Sari: In Search of Bigfoot

1:30 p.m. - International Centre BIO 570

Presentation and slide show using Popular Theatre for social change. The Footprints Theatre Group discusses a recent project of international collaboration on popular environmental theatre in Canada and the Philippines.

► Canadian Perspectives: Women and Global Solidarity - A talk by Sunera Thobani, President, National Action Committee on the Status of Women

7:30 p.m. - Red and White Club at McMahon Stadium

Reception to follow. Admission by donation

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1995

► International Jeopardy Finals

11:00 a.m. - MSC North Courtyard

► Canadian-International Student Panel

1:00 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard

Relations between Canadian and international students at The U of C ...a reflection of Albertan society? ...a reflection of Canadian society? A student panel will address these questions.

► Singapore: The "Mercedes-Benz" Developing Nation

2:00 p.m. - MSC 275

The Vice-Consul for Singapore, based in Los Angeles, will discuss the impact of run-away economic growth in South-East Asia on this rapidly growing country as well as its implications for students looking at job opportunities in the region.

► Multicultural Gala

Evening - MH Ballroom

Get a taste of the world . . . attend this spectacular event with a food fair and entertainment from a variety of cultures. Tickets available at CTC.

ONGOING EVENTS

► Photo Contest: Sponsored by the International Student Centre

Students who have studied or lived abroad are invited to submit photos of their experiences. Prizes will be awarded in the categories "people" and "places". For more information call 220-5581.

International Week at The University of Calgary is sponsored by The Students' Union, The University of Calgary; the Student Resource Centre; Division of International Development, International Centre; and many U of C campus clubs and organizations

Together

we can change our world

International Development Week
February 5 to 11, 1995

This event is held in conjunction with International Development Week "Together We Can Change Our World", sponsored by CIDA (The Canadian International Development Agency).

For more information, call Al-Noor at 220-7056, or Alex at 220-5581.

THE STUDENTS' UNION
The University of Calgary

Challenging the Paradigm of the Global Village

The University of Calgary
INTERNATIONAL WEEK

February 4 - 10, 1995

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1995

- ▶ Official Opening Ceremonies
10:30 a.m. - MSC North Courtyard
U of C Chancellor Anne McCaig, U of C President Murray Fraser, Students' Union President Jason Allen, Dr. Esha Chaudhuri and student representatives Camelia Abdul and Renee Krysko - all will kick off International Week 1995.
- ▶ Dikir Barat: Malay Rap and Dance Presentation
10:50 a.m. - MSC North Courtyard
- ▶ International Jeopardy
11:00 a.m. - MSC North Courtyard
This simulation of the game show many of us know and enjoy will be internationally focused with challenging, fun trivia. Two rounds will take place both Monday and Wednesday with the top three scoring teams reaching the finals on Friday.
- ▶ Dealing With Difference: Teaching a Course on Women of Colour, Personal Reflections
11:45 a.m. - SS 315
Talk by Dr. Vanaja Dhruvrajan (Chair, Ruthwinn Woodward Endowed Chair in Women's Studies, SFU)
- ▶ Dialogue on Development: The Question of Foreign Aid
12:00 p.m. - MSC 278
Talk by Dr. Josephine Smart, Department of Anthropology. What forms of aid are most useful for developing societies? How does the need for capital weigh against the need for skills?
- ▶ One? The Global Paradox Panel
1:00 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard
The Global Paradox? Are people in this world moving closer together economically? Are they drifting apart politically and socially? Where will this lead us? What does this mean for the concept of culture? U of C professors Dr. Tim Pynch (Continuing Education), Dr. Marcia Epstein (General Studies), and Dr. Charles Acland (Communications Studies) as well as two students, Brent Ryan-Lewis of the First Nations Students' Association and Jason McIntyre, the President of AIESEC will present.
- ▶ Wild Swans: Arusha One World Film Festival Preview
2:00 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard
Video feature. This epic account of the lives of three generations of Chinese women captures the turbulent transformation of China in the 20th century. Author Jung Chang's grandmother was born into a still feudal society, had her feet bound, and at the age of fifteen became a warlord's concubine. Her daughter, Jung Chang's mother, became a guerilla fighter against the Chiang Kai-shek regime and rose to high rank after the Communist Party victory. She and her husband later became victims of the Cultural Revolution. They were denounced and sent to labor camps where they endured great hardship.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1995

- ▶ Women and Development in India
9:30 a.m. - 10:45 a.m. - International Centre Lounge, BIO 588
Panel session with Professor Vanaja Dhruvrajan and Dr. Aradhana Parmar, Instructor, Development Studies, U of C. Dr. Dhruvrajan speaks on "Religion, Empowerment and Development in India". Dr. Parmar will be addressing "Women's Participation in Grassroots Movements in India"
- ▶ NGO Fair
10:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard
Did you know that Calgary has over 150 active organizations working for global change/social justice? Come by and chat with some of them about their numerous projects almost everywhere in the world you can think of, including Vanuatu.
- ▶ The International Secret (oops Centre) Exhibition
10:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. - MSC 275
Displays by the International Centre, The University of Calgary. Did you know that the International Centre on campus has projects operating in Nepal, India, Bhutan, Peru, Honduras, Nicaragua, Canada, Thailand, Philippines, and South Africa? If not, this may be your chance.
- ▶ The International Bazaar
11:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. - MSC Courtyards
Club Displays, sales booths, buskers and an International Food Fair - get lost in a world of opportunities and aromas!
- ▶ In Search of a Canadian Identity: The Future of Multiculturalism
11:00 a.m. - MSC North Courtyard
Panel session with Robert Bragg (Senior Editorial Writer, Calgary Herald), Dr. Valerie Pruegger (Executive Director, Calgary Multicultural Centre) and Dr. Tom Flanagan (Professor, Political Science, U of C). Resolution: that the federal government's official policy of multiculturalism is more divisive than unifying.
- ▶ Media Images of Development
12:30 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard
Panel session with Gordon Legge (Calgary Herald), Dr. Edna Einsedel (Communications, Development Studies), Rick Castiglione (Channel 7 News). Our picture of the developing world is shaped by media images. Do those images portray reality or unnecessary and excessive pessimism for sensational effect?
- ▶ Exploring Overseas Opportunities
1:30 p.m. - MSC 275
Roundtable presentations and discussion on work and volunteer opportunities abroad, such as Canada World Youth, Canadian Crossroads & CUSO. Speakers will make 10-minute presentations on their experiences abroad.
- ▶ Ethics and International Trade
6:00 p.m. - PFB 162
Address by the Honourable Mitchell Sharpe for the O.D. Skelton Memorial Lecture. Talk at 6:00 p.m., Reception to follow at 7:00 p.m. Hosted by President Murray Fraser and The International Centre and sponsored by Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1995

- ▶ Calgary Youth Summit '95
8:15 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. - Eau Claire YMCA
Full-day conference for 50 selected grade 11 and 12 students to learn about Global Co-operation and Development. Hosted by the U of C International Centre and the YMCA of Calgary International. High school students tackle global issues such as Peacekeeping in a New World Order, Gender and Development, World Trade, Preventative and Alternative Health Care.
- ▶ Language Bank Displays
11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard
Find out about language programs worldwide as well as our own International Student Centre's Language Bank teaching and learning opportunities.
- ▶ Study and Opportunities Abroad Displays
11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard
From academic exchanges and language learning opportunities to teaching or volunteering in Latin America, Asia and Africa, check the options here!
- ▶ The Heebie-jeebies
11:00 a.m. - MSC North Courtyard
This Calgary a cappella group is jettisoning itself to stardom - check them out!
- ▶ International Jeopardy
11:00 a.m. - MSC North Courtyard
Is it trivia or education? - In this case it is both as club participants go head to head again in the second grouping of playdowns
- ▶ Amnesty International
1:00 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard
Documentary Video, "East Timor: Betrayed but not Beaten." Followed by discussion and information related to human rights violations.
- ▶ Your $'s and Personal Involvement in Aid - A Panel
2:00 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard
Panel session with Marg Durnin (Alta Coalition for Global Justice), Anne McGrath (Oxfam), Bill Demaer (World Vision), Carol Simpson and Dr. Mathew Zachariah (professor, EDPA). What factors would you consider when deciding whether or not, or which development/aid organization to support? What is behind or beyond the television commercials or brief ads that ask for your support of peoples around the world?
- ▶ Reflections on Yugoslavia
3:00 p.m. - MSC North Courtyard
David Albahari, Writer-in-Residence, Markin-Flanagan Distinguished Writers Program, U of C, highly acclaimed and award-winning Yugoslavian writer, presents a selection of readings from recent works and a discussion of the effect of nationalism on Eastern Europe.
- ▶ A Stepping Stone to the World
4:00 p.m. - MSC 274
Free coffee and international opportunities information at the International Student Centre (ISC). Find out how to do your own research in the ISC in areas such as U of C exchanges, term abroad programs, teaching english, work abroad, international development, language learning and much much more.