

YOU ARE INVITED TO CELEBRATE
INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY!

March 8, 6:30 - 9:30pm
at Northern Lights College

FESTIVITIES INCLUDE:

Book Fair (to Borrow or Buy)
Readings (bring something to read and share such as a poem you wrote or a poem you love)
Singing (by Val and Jacky)
Dancing (by the Muskwa River Dancers, a multicultural youth dance group)

Speaker: Myra Rutherfordale from the SFU Travelling Speakers Series will be here to speak on the history of women in Northern B.C. and the Yukon!

LUNCHEON TALK: Noon-1pm, NLC, room 113/114
Ms. Rutherfordale's talk on the lives of women missionaries in the late 1800s is humorously titled "I Wish The Men Were Half As Good".

EVENING TALK: 8pm, NLC, room 113/114
Ms Rutherfordale's talk on the lives of women in Northern BC in the early 1900s is titled "Telling Tales About Women In Canada's Past: Contested Spaces and Constructed Identities from Thanadelthur to the 'Yukon Order of Pioneers'."

OTHER INFO:

This event is produced by the Fort Nelson Women's Resource Centre with help from Northern Lights College. Our generous sponsors include Slocan Forest Products, Mountain Top Reforestation, Westcoast Energy, Energy 102.3 FM, and Northern Visions Health Food Store. If you'd like to help, bring an item for the WRC Garage Sale, or buy a book at the book fair!

For Info. on Free Childcare / Travel Subsidies for Participants, Call Debra at 3069.

2000

Myra Rutherfordale,

as a member of the faculty of the Women's Studies Dept., Simon Fraser University, has done extensive research on the history of Northern Canadian women in the 19th and 20th Centuries.

An Historical Luncheon,

(Noon-1pm, Room 113/114 Northern Lights College): Ms. Rutherfordale will talk and answer questions on the lives of women missionaries in the 1800s. Her lecture is humorously titled "I Wish the Men Were Half as Good."

International Women's Day

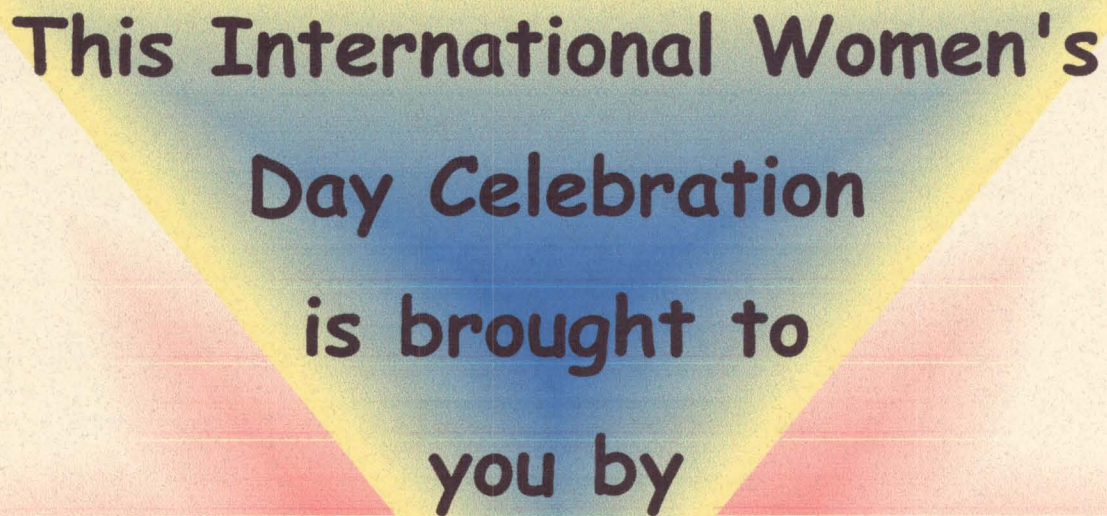

For more information on the evening lecture by Ms. Rutherfordale, and other International Women's Day Highlights, see the other side of this brochure.

Please Call Debra at 774-3069
For More Information.

The Fort Nelson Historical Society
Northern Lights College,
The Simon Fraser University
Travelling Speaker Series
and the Fort Nelson
Women's Resource Society Present::

AN HISTORICAL LUNCHEON
with Myra Rutherfordale
March 8, Noon - 12:50
Northern Lights College

Bring a Sack Lunch — Free Admission

This International Women's Day Celebration is brought to you by

Fort Nelson Women's Resource Society

Northern Lights College

Simon Fraser University's Women's Studies Department

Slocan Forest Products

Polarboard EFAP

Mountain Top Reforestation

Westcoast Energy

Wide Sky Disposals

Energy 102.3FM

Beverly K's Beauty Boutique

Northern Visions Health Food Store

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2000

WED., MARCH 8, 6:30-9:30, NORTHERN LIGHTS COLLEGE

PRODUCED BY THE WOMEN'S RESOURCE SOCIETY

FREE ADMISSION — EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

FOR INFORMATION ABOUT CHILD CARE AND TRAVEL
SUBSIDIES FOR THE EVENT, CALL DEBRA @ 3069

WHAT TO BRING BESIDES YOURSELF:

If you WISH, bring a DISH
OR bring a POEM to share (by you or another woman writer), OR bring money to BUY A BOOK from our bookfair
OR bring a
DONATION for our
WRC garage sale.
OR - JUST COME HAVE FUN!

Mark your calendar because if you miss this, you'll wish you hadn't. We'll have a coffee house for poetry and short prose, as well as a speaker from Simon Fraser University.

There will be food, music, singers, dancers, a book fair, interesting women and good conversation. Come join the fun!!!

Sponsored by the SFU Travelling Speaker Series, Slocan Forest Products, Mountain Top Reforestation, Polarboard EFAP, Energy 102.3, Northern Lights College, Westcoast Energy, Northern Visions Health Food Store, Beverly K's Beauty Boutique, and Widesky Recycling.

PHONE: (250) 774-3069