

"REVOLUTIONARY WOMEN"

FILMMAKER

JACQUELINE LEVITIN

COMES TO PENTICTON

DATE: Wednesday, Nov. 13

TIME: 4 pm

PLACE: OUC Penticton Campus, Lecture Theatre

"Eva: Guerrillera", a film written and directed by Jacqueline Levitin, is an exciting story of a young female guerrilla fighter in war-torn El Salvador. Through interviews with a Canadian journalist, Eva's active role in the struggle is reconstructed. The movie stars Quebec singer Angela Roa.

The video is 80 minutes and writer-director Levitin will discuss the film and the issues it raises with the audience after showing.

Levitin teaches Women Studies and film theory at Simon Fraser University and the School of Contemporary Arts. This event is co-sponsored by SFU Travelling Speakers Bureau, OUCFA Status of Women Committee and the Penticton & Area Women's Centre.

Admission is free and all are welcome!
