

Combating Racism and Becoming an Ally of Anti-Racist Group

Come to and take this effective workshop to join the battle against racism. This workshop will attempt to explore some of the following issues:

- acknowledgment of different kinds of privileges and oppressions;
- definition and concept of racism;
- where does racism come from?
- reflections based on one's own experience;
- what strategies can we develop to combat racism and to create a society based on justice?

Facilitator: Habiba Zaman, Assistant Professor, Women's Studies, SFU

Dates: April 19 (Sat) 1:30-5:30pm

Cost: $25 plus GST -

Chetwynd

Includes FREE lunch; will be served from 1:30-2:30 pm; relax and get acquainted before the workshop.

Facilitator Profile

Habiba Zaman is currently doing research on working women and social change in Dhaka city and believes in links between women's movement and social change in the South. Her areas of research interests include women and work in cross-cultural perspective, gender and development, feminist research methods, and women of color and Canadian feminism. She has published, among others, in Canadian Journal of Developing Areas. Her recently published book is titled Woman and Work in a Bangladesh Village (Dhaka: Narigrantha Prabantana/The Feminist Bookstore, 1996).

For more information or to register please contact
Northern Lights College at 788-2248.

2003