Dear Mahshid,

Yes, I understand.

Of course I "approve granting the non-exclusive rights to reproduce the figure". In addition, I guess a caption saying where it is reproduced from will be nice!

Hope good lucks on your thesis!

("CCC"), at the time that you opened your Rightslink account and that are available at any time at).
 2. ACM reserves all rights not specifically granted in the combination of (i) the license details provided by you and accepted in the course of this licensing transaction, (ii) these terms and conditions and (iii) CCC's Billing and Payment terms and conditions.
 3. ACM hereby grants to licensee a non-exclusive license to use or republish this ACM-copyrighted material* in secondary works (especially for commercial distribution) with the stipulation that consent of the lead author has been obtained independently. Unless otherwise stipulated in a license, grants are for one-time use in a single edition of the work, only with a maximum distribution equal to the number that you identified in the licensing process. Any additional form of republication must be specified according to the terms included at the time of licensing.
- *Please note that ACM cannot grant republication or distribution licenses for embedded third-party material. You must confirm the ownership of figures, drawings and artwork prior to use.
4. Any form of republication or redistribution must be used within 180 days from the date stated on the license and any electronic posting is limited to a period of six months unless an extended term is selected during the licensing process. Separate subsidiary and subsequent republication licenses must be purchased to redistribute copyrighted material on an extranet. These licenses may be exercised anywhere in the world.
 5. Licensee may not alter or modify the material in any manner (except that you may use, within the scope of the license granted, one or more excerpts from the copyrighted material, provided that the process of excerpting does not alter the meaning of the material or in any way reflect negatively on the publisher or any writer of the material).
 6. Licensee must include the following copyright and permission notice in connection with any reproduction of the licensed material: "[Citation] © YEAR Association for Computing Machinery, Inc.  7. Translation of the material in any language requires an explicit license identified during the licensing process. Due to the error-prone nature of language translations, Licensee must include the following copyright and permission notice and disclaimer in connection with any reproduction of the licensed material in translation: "This translation is a derivative of ACM-copyrighted material. ACM did not prepare this translation and does not guarantee that it is an accurate copy of the originally published work. The original intellectual property contained in this work remains the property of ACM."

8. You may exercise the rights licensed immediately upon issuance of the license at the end of the licensing transaction, provided that you have disclosed complete and accurate details of your proposed use. No license is finally effective unless and until full payment is received from you (either by CCC or ACM) as provided in CCC's Billing and Payment terms and conditions.

Further, in the event that you breach any of these terms and conditions or any of CCC's Billing and Payment terms and conditions, the license is automatically revoked and shall be void as if never granted.

10. Use of materials as described in a revoked license, as well as any use of the materials beyond the scope of an unrevoked license, may constitute copyright infringement and publisher reserves the right to take any and all action to protect its copyright in the materials.

11. ACM makes no representations or warranties with respect to the licensed material and adopts on its own behalf the limitations and disclaimers established by CCC on its behalf in its Billing and Payment terms and conditions for this licensing transaction.

14. This license may not be amended except in a writing signed by both parties (or, in the case of ACM, by CCC on its behalf).

15. ACM hereby objects to any terms contained in any purchase order, acknowledgment, check endorsement or other writing prepared by you, which terms are inconsistent with these terms and conditions or CCC's Billing and Payment terms and conditions. These terms and conditions, together with CCC's Billing and Payment terms and conditions (which are incorporated herein), comprise the entire agreement between you and ACM (and CCC) concerning this licensing transaction. Hi Mahid,

Congratulations on defending!

Yes, you have my permission to reuse the image. But since you redrew it yourself, then you do not need to get permission from me or the IEEE, so it's a moot point! The usual phrase is "redrawn after", as in "Redrawn after Figure 1 of [Munzner09]".

Yes, that line in the acknowledgments is fine, thanks for checking!

Cheers, Tamara

I am contacting you regarding two requests:

1. I request the non-exclusive rights to reproduce the below material in my masters thesis.

Paper title: A Nested Model for Visualization Design and Validation

Journal: IEEE Transactions on Visualization and Computer Graphics.

Author: Tamara Munzner

Material Requested: Fig 1

I was not too sure if I need to contact you, or tvvg@computer.org. Also I redrew the image for my own research work. (I actually am not too sure if I need a permission for this image or not, it would be great if you let me know your opinion.)

2. In my thesis acknowledgement section, I thanked you with this sentence:

"I thank Dr. Tamara Munzner for her insightful comments on the design of this project."

Please let me know if you are Ok with this, and I can keep this sentence. The thesis is basically an extension on the project I did for your course (CPSC 533C: Information Visualization, Fall 2011-2012).

If you need any further information to help process this request, please do not hesitate to contact me.

I look forward to hearing from you.
