

Sto:lo Library

Transitioning from the Past into the Future

Sto:lo
Resource
Centre

Coquleetza
grounds,
Chilliwack,
BC

Get Started

Watch the Introduction Video to see how it works
Start Browsing Now to access many of the items on the RRN, available without a researcher account

Request an Account to access the research and collaboration tools. Members can discuss, share knowledge, and research First Nations culture in ways that aren't possible on any one institution's website.

Find Musqueam blankets and prints on the RRN.

Learn More »

Reciprocal Research Network

First Nations items from the Northwest Coast

The RRN lets you research cultural items held at 19 institutions, all from the same convenient interface. Create a project to conduct your research, then invite other people to work with you.

Learn more »

The project is a joint effort, co-developed by Musqueam Indian Band, the Stó:lō Nation/Tribal Council, the U'mista Cultural Society and the Museum of Anthropology at UBC. Many partner institutions from around the world are also involved. Learn more »

What's inside

19 Institutions	1,483 Members
435,708 Items	696 Discussions
250,661 Photographs	1,061 Projects

Partners Institutions

American Museum of Natural History
The Autry National Center
Brooklyn Museum
Burke Museum of Natural History & Culture
Glenbow Museum
Lab of Archaeology
McCord Museum of Canadian History
Museum of Anthropology
Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology
Musqueam Indian Band
National Museum of the American Indian
National Museum of Natural History
Nova Scotia Museum
Pitt Rivers Museum
Royal British Columbia Museum
Royal Ontario Museum
SFU Museum of Archaeology & Ethnology
Sto:lo Research & Resource Management Centre
U'mista Cultural Centre

Can my institution join?

Yes! We're always open to new partners. It's free, fast, and most importantly, it's easy. This is an opportunity to leverage the knowledge of community members, academic researchers, curators and students. Learn more »

By becoming a partner, your institution also gets its own custom RRN Kiosk and RRN Mobile apps that allow visitors to view your collections and any additional media during their visit.

Learn more »

www.rrncommunity.org

Flake DgRk8:1

retouched, utilized margins; pot-lid fracture due to forest fire exposure

CULTURE: Coast Salish: Sto:lo
MATERIAL: metasediment
HOLDING INSTITUTION: Sto:lo Research & Resource Management Centre

View Item Record

Exhausted Core DgRk8:2

exhausted, black chert

CULTURE: Coast Salish: Sto:lo
MATERIAL: chert
HOLDING INSTITUTION: Sto:lo Research & Resource Management Centre

View Item Record

Point, Projectile DgRi1:1

triangular, corner-notched

CULTURE: Coast Salish: Sto:lo
MATERIAL: basalt
HOLDING INSTITUTION: Sto:lo Research & Resource Management Centre

View Item Record

Translations

More

Ts'elxwéyeqw Halq'eméylem

Chilliwack, British Columbia, Canada

Literal translation: "Going back upstream; backwater"; "As far as you can go with a canoe"

Data

Data Source

This information was automatically generated from data provided by Sto:lo Research & Resource Management Centre. It has been standardized to aid in finding and grouping information.

Description

triangular, corner-notched

Item History

Collected by David Schaepe in DgRi, Borden Number and Rosedale, British Columbia, Canada

What

NAME: Point, Projectile
IDENTIFICATION NUMBER: DgRi1:1
TYPE OF ITEM: point and projectile
MATERIAL: basalt
OVERALL: length 1.7 cm, width 1.2 cm, height 0.3 cm

Who

CULTURE: Coast Salish: Sto:lo
FIELD COLLECTOR: David Schaepe

When

Where

HOLDING INSTITUTION: Sto:lo Research & Resource Management Centre
COLLECTED IN: DgRi, Borden Number and Rosedale, British Columbia, Canada

Other

SITE: Chilliwack River Watershed

